Contents for ESQ, Volume 42, 1996

No. 1 (1st Quarter) No. 162 o.s.

Karen L. Kilcup

"Ourself behind Ourself, Concealed—": The Homoerotics of Reading in The Scarlet Letter 1

Elizabeth Schultz

The Sentimental Subtext of Moby-Dick: Melville's Response to the "World of Woe" 29

Kathryn Bufkin

"By Their Fruits, Ye Shall Know Them": The Theological Background of Emerson's "Thoreau" 51

Notes

John C. Hirsh

Theodore Parker Exchanges Pulpits: Two Letters 69

Contributors 76

No. 2 (2nd Quarter) No. 163 o.s.

William Dow

Fiction Is Not Real: The Performative and Norris's McTeague 77

Eric Wilson

Emerson and Electromagnetism 93

Review Essay

William Rossi

Education in the Field:
Recent Thoreau Criticism and Environment 125

Contributors 152

No. 3 (3rd Quarter) No. 164 o.s.

Elizabeth Addison

Obedience and Algebra:
From Listening to Language in Emerson's Response to Mary Rotch 153

Steven Olsen-Smith

The Pattern of the Impulsive Act in Melville's Fiction 195

Ronald P. Morrison

Time, Place, and Culture in Thoreau's *Cape Cod 215

Contributors 232

No. 4 (4th Quarter) No. 165 o.s.

Anna C. Brickhouse

"I Do Abhor an Indian Story":

Hawthorne and the Allegorization of Racial "Commixture" 233

Elisabeth Hurth

When "Man Makes God":
Feuerbachian Atheism in New England 255

Paul Lyons

Opening Accounts in the South Seas:
Poe's Pym and American Pacific Orientalism 291

Contributors 327